Superintendent's Report

To the School Board and the Citizens of the School District of Stewartstown:

Foreword

As we continue to be told by professionals and laymen alike how public education should be and can be made more effective, it is interesting to note that about the only point upon which there is agreement to any extent is that of needed change. In respect to subject matter content, its method of presentation, and for what purpose, opinions come from as many quarters as the winds of the sky with shifts in their direction just about as often. One thing is sure, however, they keep us on the move, which calls for more attention being devoted to where we are trying to go, if there is to be any assurance that travel is to be in the right direction.

This direction in turn is going to be determined largely by the selection of our educational goal. Of the many lines of thought expressed on this choice, two stand out. One holds that with the relatively short time available during the calendar year for formal school training, that the school should subordinate all its other generally accepted functions of today, and concentrate on the job it alone can do of developing the intellectual equipment of every child to its maximum point. In contrast to this stand, deemed by some to be too realistic, the other holds a more idealistic point of view. It maintains that the ultimate goal of our educational effort is wisdom - the ability to make wise independent decisions based upon accurate facts, clear reasoning, and complete understanding. As can readily be seen, although this goal, too, calls for the same universality in education, it is appreciably wider in scope. The implication is that education is more than mere training, more even than adjustment to the world as it is. It points to an educated individual prepared to take part in remaking his world by making sound decisions in whatever situations with which he may be faced. As can be seen, as meritorious as are the concepts embodied in either or both of these goals, the degree to which achievement is accomplished will be determined to the extent the human side is recognized in working toward their attainment.

Teachers

As has been reiterated many times before, the district is very fortunate to have experienced teachers in all positions. Mrs. Mary A. Pease, who received her training at Gorham Teachers College in Maine, and who has taught previously both inside and outside the state, teaches Grades 1-4 at the Hollow Elementary School. Mrs. Claire G. Owen teaches Grades 5-8 at the same school. The three veteran teachers at the West Stewartstown School include Mrs. Gladys M. Brackett, Principal, who teaches Grades 6-7-8, Mrs. Henrietta W. Jackson, who teaches Grades 3-4-5, and Mrs. Cleora M. Richardson, who teaches Grades 1-2-3.

School Nurse - Health

The overall general good health exhibited by the pupils in our schools during the past several months, while our school nurse was confined to her home recovering from a major operation, emphatically indicates the importance of the work she has done.

It has been only through the conducting of frequent clinics, the administering of periodic immunizations, the giving of successive complete physical examinations, and the maintenance of constant check-up and continuous supervision procedures of a comprehensive health program operated over a prolonged period of time, that such good fortune could be experienced.

Building Improvements and Repairs

Extensive improvements and repairs were made at the West Stewartstown Building during the summer vacation period. By converting the steam heating system from a coal to an oil burning unit, and dividing the building into six zones, consisting of the four classrooms, cafeteria, and hallway with each under separate thermostatic control, the heat is more uniformly distributed and evenly maintained throughout the building. Painting done includes the ceiling in the primary room, front wall in hallway on the first floor level, south wall and floor in cafeteria, basement floors, outside porch floors, and the sides of the slide and the swing seats of the playground apparatus. The old lavatory in the girls' basement was replaced with a new one, an incinerator was installed in the boiler room, and horizontal piping was fastened to the south wall in the upper grade room to provide additional opportunity for the hanging of clothing.

Included in the outside work was the filling in of the low spots on the playground with gravel, covering the front steps and the lower one leading to the side entrance on the south side with hot top, filling in the missing sections of the grating covering the window wells on the front of the building with planking, tightening and refastening protective wire over basement windows, and making minor repairs to the roof.

Outside of painting the walls in the corridor from the floor to wainscoting height, only such minor repairs were made at the new Hollow Elementary School Building as would keep it in a good state of maintenance.

School Lunch

To conduct a school lunch program year after year in a small school, which, except for the cost of the bottled gas used and miscellaneous repairs made, is upon a self-supporting basis, is an outstanding accomplishment. This vitally important work done at the West Stewartstown School by Mrs. M. Eva Day contributes a great deal to the overall good health, happy life, and educational effort of the school.

Notes on the Budget

The School Board's budget for 1962-63, which is the same as that of the Budget Committee, is $71,924.00 as compared to $66,491.00 for the current year. This amount is reduced by an estimated income of $19,000.00 which leaves a requested appropriation of $52,924.00 to be raised by taxes by the town in comparison to $53,491.00 for this year. Provision for increases in salaries and in transportation and tuition costs, for the most part, explains the increase in the budget for next year.

Enrollment and Attendance

The enrollment of pupils in the district's schools continues to be about the same as it has for the past two years, as it is 119 at the present time as compared to 120 last year and 124 the previous year. A breakdown of the enrollment at the time of this writing shows that there are 72 at the West Stewartstown School and 47 at the Hollow School. The average percentage of attendance at these schools last year in the same order as listed was 96.24 and 95.69, while the average number of tardinesses per pupil was 1.41 and .11.

Tuition Pupils

The number of pupils enrolled in schools outside the district is again relatively large as it is the same as last year's of 47 while the previous year's was 39. Of the number of pupils for which the district is paying tuition for the current year, 19 are at Colebrook Academy, 25 at Canaan High School, Canaan, Vermont, and 3 at Colebrook Elementary School.

Conclusion

May I again express my deep appreciation to the members of the School Board, parents, teachers, and citizens for all the assistance and cooperation received as we have worked together during the past several years in our joint effort to provide and maintain high standards in our schools.

Respectfully submitted,

ERNEST B. DANA

PROGRAM OF THE WHITE MOUNTAINS REGION ASSOCIATION

The White Mountains Region Association as a voluntary non-profit organization, receives support from the communities of the Region, the state and from individual members so that a program of cooperative promotion and development of northern New Hampshire may be carried on.

The Association publishes and distributes six different folders a year advertising the many advantages of the Region. It receives and carefully answers about 6,000 letters per year from people interested in a vacation in the North Country. The value of this single service cannot be over-emphasized. Recent surveys have shown that the tourists attracted by this mailing service have spent many hundreds of thousands of dollars in the Region. The Association sponsors the annual fall foliage tours, and represents the Region at national travel shows.

Through its board of directors, it is able to speak for the Region's needs at state and national hearings and at important meetings within the Region. It maintains a news release service to local newspapers to help inform the citizens of the North Country of worth-while activities and economic trends.

This winter the Association is running a cooperative ad program with the chambers of commerce in the ski areas to promote skiing in the White Mountains. It cooperates with private promotional groups, local chambers of commerce, and with the state promotional agencies. It promotes the sale of real estate through the mailing of real-estate purchase bulletins to real estate brokers. It conducts labor surveys for groups interested in industrial development, maintains an award program for the 4-H Clubs, and promotes agriculture within the Region.

In uninterrupted service since 1938, it has helped establish the White Mountains Region as a vacation center as fine as any in the world and contributed in many other ways to the economic betterment of all forty-six communities in northern New Hampshire.
